

1. Finding the full text of a journal article. How to go from the citation to the full text.
2. Start with the citation for the article; find the title of the journal that the article is in.
3. Go to the library homepage and click on the Journals tab
4. Type in the name of Journal.
- 5.
6. If we get results, this means that we have access to the full text.
7. Look at the citation to see when the article was written
8. Choose the option that will contain the article
9. Using the original citation click on the link that matches your citation information
10. Scroll until you get to the article title.
11. Click on the full text link.
- 12.